

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century gold, ruby and sapphire necklace by Castellani, Rome c.1870, designed as a slightly graduated fringe of round cabochon sapphires, each close set in dentil collet mounts with ropetwist band around, on short reeded stems from a line of similar smaller cabochon rubies, the rubies spaced by ropetwist and reeded links, Length 37.5cm / 14³/₄"
Weight: 82g