

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 19th century oval link diamond necklace forming a pair of bracelets, English c.1820, the open links of oblong form, set around with cushion cut diamonds graduating to the middle on each of the long sides, each with a cushion cut collet set diamond in between, open set in silver and gold, detaching to form two bracelets with a single link Length 38cm / 15"
Length of each bracelet 18cm / 7"
Weight: 30g