S.J. PHILLIPS

18th century German chased oval gold box by Freres Souchay, Hanau c.1760,

the cover featuring a scene of rustic life amongst classical ruins, figures to the foreground, one playing a trumpet, another carrying a young child in arms, two cows to centre, a church like building far right, on a sable ground, chased gold scroll rim embellished by floral sprays and swags, similar scenes around the sides with animals, and to the base with a mother and child, rococo scroll fluted borders, the sides also with a diaper pattern to the upper rim

Length 8.5cm / 3 3/8"
Width 6.3cm / 2"
Depth 3.8cm / 1"
Weight: 159g