

S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco mauve tourmaline and diamond dress ring, c.1925, the cut-corner rectangular tourmaline of step cut, the pinkish-brownish purple described as 'old mauve', approximately 7.75ct, bracket set between stepped baguette diamond shoulders, three graduated diamonds to each side, strut-pierced gallery with acanthus engraved detail at each end, mounted in platinum, unmarked

Tourmaline 13.50 x 10.40 x 6.68mm

Weight: 5.5g