S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of Art Deco diamond, onyx and carved jadeite panel pendant earrings by Lacloche Freres, Paris, each hung with domed rectangular jade panel carved with a flower to each side, below a Chinoiserie style black enamelled scroll ended surmount, from tapering articulated lines of batons, single collets, oval and rectangle motif in diamond and black enamel, square collet tops set with sugarloaf jades, mounted in platinum and with yellow gold fitting, the panel backs signed 'LACLOCHE FRERES', French platinum marks to the peg fittings, and one with trace of a workshop mark Length 7.2cm / 2"

Width (of panels) 1.1cm / 7/16"
Weight: 12.5g