S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of early 20th century emerald and diamond cluster pendant earrings, English c.1910, possibly by Garrard & Co.,

each hung with a canted rectangular emerald in double diamond line border, of old single cut diamonds, the outer border with a zig-zag edge, similar to the cushion shaped cluster tops with central square emerald, two articulated single stone diamond collets in between, all millegrain set excepting the shaped edges, mounted in platinum, the emeralds approximately 0.70cts in all Length 2.6cm / 1 1/16"

Width 0.9cm / 3/8"
Weight: 5g