S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco sapphire, diamond and onyx oblong brooch, French c.1925, of open geometric design with pointed ends, two channel set lines of sugarloaf cabochon sapphires with a triangular cluster at either end set with liens of diamonds an calibre onyx forming a 'key' pattern, the point terminals each set with a triangular cut diamond, mounted in platinum, French assaymark to pin, French workshop mark to pin Length 6.2cm / 2 5/8"

Width 1.4cm / ?"
Weight: 12g