S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 19th century pearl and diamond cluster pendant brooch, English c.1880, the central bouton pearl bordered by a single row of small old cushion cut diamonds, surrounded by a single row of larger cushion cut diamonds, each interspersed by smaller old round cut diamonds, largely coronet set, the smallest stones collet set, mounted in silver and gold, hung from hinged gold bale, with detatchable brooch fitting to reverse, approximately 13.60cts of diamonds in all, accompanied by a GCS report no.5784-2067 giving the opinion that the pearl is of natural saltwater origin and measures 9.1 x 9.1 x 7.0mm Diameter: 2.8cm / 1 1/8"

Pearl measurements approximately: 9.1mm x 9.1mm x 7.0mm
Weight: 12.5g