

S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 19th century Burmese ruby and diamond flower cluster ring, English c.1895, set to the centre with an oval cut ruby, approximately 1.75ct, surrounded by petals of old cushion cut diamonds, open cut down collet set in silver and gold, upon a gold shank with trifurcated leaf shoulders, approximately 1.90cts of diamonds in all, accompanied by Gem & Pearl Lab report no. 24442 stating the opinion that the ruby is of Burma origin with no evidence of heat treatment

Head height: 1.7cm

Head width: 1.5cm

Ruby approximately 8.0 x 7.5 x 3.6mm

Weight: 4g