S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco diamond and rock crystal rectangular clip brooch by Cartier, Paris c.1925, of stylised buckle design, the rock crystal rectangle link with bevelled edges, secured at either side by pave set diamond panel mounts, of longer stepped design to the clip-hinge side featuring a central channel of three baguette cut diamonds to a circular cut diamond ground, shorter panel opposite of circular cuts, these of brilliant and single cut, mounted in platinum with 18ct white gold fittings at to back, signed 'Cartier Paris', French assaymarks to the pins and mount-back, partial workshop visible, approximately 1.55cts, together with a Cartier case

Length 2.6cm / 1"

Width 2.3cm / 7/8"
Weight: 13g