

S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 19th / early 20th century graduated sapphire and diamond cluster bracelet, c.1900, with seven cushion cut Ceylon sapphires, the largest to centre of 18.51ct, each claw set within a diamond line border, coronet set and with single stone diamond spacer link between, millegrain set, the diamond all of old brilliant and cushion cut, mounted in yellow and white gold, accompanied by two associated AGL reports giving a Sri Lankan (Ceylon) origin opinion on the sapphires and that they show no evidence of heat treatment nor clarity enhancement, the reports no'd 1140985 & 1140978 / 1-7, the first showing the sapphires mounted as the bracelet and the second showing them loose and with individual weights ranging 18.51ct, 15.85ct, 11.49ct, 10.14ct, 7.58ct, 7.13ct and 6.15ct (total weight of 76.85cts)

Length 17.5g / 6 1/2"

Weight: 47g