

S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco buff-top sapphire and diamond bracelet by Mauboussin, Paris 1926, formed of eight end-to-end rectangular diamond set panels, each centred by an oblique square sapphire with buff-top and step cut pavilion, the diamonds of round brilliant and single cut, each joined by two-stone calibre buff-top sapphire connectors, mounted in 18ct white gold, French workshop mark, portait, second letter R flanking an arrow, French assaymark, serial number 88145 (worn and last two digits over stamped), approximately 5.40cts of diamonds in all, unsigned but accompanied by a photocopy of a Mauboussin Certificate of Authenticity signed by Marguerite de Cerval

Length 17.7cm / 7"

Width 0.8cm / 2/8"

Weight: 24g