

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century onyx and diamond dress set by Cartier, Paris c.1910, the set comprising a pair of cufflinks, two buttons and two studs, of openwork circular form, each centred by an oval cabochon onyx, to a pave set diamond bar radiating in a fluted shape towards the outer edge of the face, the border set with calibre cut onyx, each link joined by a chain, the edges of the links and buttons signed 'CARTIER PARIS', serial numbers very rubbed, 2392 to one, and possibly 2282, together with Cartier fitted case with various fittings behind the bed

Cufflink and button diameter 11.5mm

Weight: 13.5g