

S.J. PHILLIPS

Mid-19th century gold, diamond, enamel and pearl scallop shell bangle c.1860, topped by a scallop shell set with graduated lines of rose cut diamonds, each row with black enamel line between, centred by a pearl, the broad gold bangle of bombe hollow 'D' section form, hinged to one side with a flush thumbpush opening opposite, the gold testing as 18ct with a 22ct gilding Width of bangle 2.1cm / 7/8"

Inside length 15cm / 6"

Length of shell
Weight: 65.5g