

S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 19th century gold and peridot pendant necklace, c.1890, centred by a principal canted triangular peridot suspending an inverted pear shape peridot, with cream-white enamel bow motif between, upon an interlinked fancy circular-ring chain necklace of fluted and ribbed links, suspending four graduated oval faceted peridots, the peridots all open coronet-claw set, the gold testing as 18ct, the peridots approximately 43cts in all, upon a later bolt ring clasp

Length open 41cm / 16"

Pendant length overall 5cm / 2"

Largest peridot of stepped cut-corner triangular form 17.35 x 18.60 x 17.75 x 8.00 deep

Weight: 36.5g