

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century diamond cluster bombe heart pendant, c.1860, the front pave set with rows of cushion cut diamonds around a larger stone to centre, with glazed compartment back, hung from a tapering two stone diamond suspension bale, open cut down collet set in silver and gold, approximately 4.25cts of diamonds in all

Length including suspension loop 3cm / 1 1/8"

Weight: 5.5g