

S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of mid-20th century diamond radiating cluster earrings by Cartier, New York, special order, 1943, of stylised floral and foliate design, each centred by a principal old cushion cut diamond, approximately 2.25ct & 1.90ct, in a radiating asymmetric border of marquise and baguette cut diamonds forming petals and foliage in a triangular outline, mounted in platinum with 18ct white gold fittings (14ct to the hinge bracket), signed 'CARTIER' to one and with serial number 'PALL 43-48638 (last digit indistinct), the remainder of the diamonds approximately 9.60cts (giving a total diamond weight of 13.70cts), accompanied by IAJA report no. XP2160-201224 signed by Olivier Bachet declaring that in his opinion this is a genuine Cartier item, commissioned as a special order from Cartier New York in 1943

Length 3.7cm / 1 1/4"

Width 2.5cm / 1"

Weight: 19g