S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco citrine and diamond leaf clip brooch by Cartier, Paris, possibly retailed by Cartier London, the stylised design of arrowhead form, with twin oblong citrines radiating in chevron pattern from a central diamond set channel, a pear shape facetted citrine forming the tip, small diamond collet accents around the edge, a scrollover arch to the opposite end set with baguette cut citrines flanked by round brilliant and single cut diamonds, the oblong citrines of scissor cut, the diamonds to the central vein of inverted point cut and presenting as flat-topped, mounted in platinum and 18ct yellow gold, signed 'Cartier Paris', serial number 05225 and scored out serial number possibly 05985 (overstamped with 1's), JC maker's marks for Jacques Cartier, marked PT950 and 750, also with French assaymarks for platinum and 18ct gold, approximately 1.75cts of diamonds in all, accompanied by IAJA report no. XP2362-150525 signed by Olivier Bachet declaring that in his opinion this is a genuine Cartier item made by Cartier Paris 5 x 3.1cm / 2 x 1&#65533;"

Weight: 20.5g