

S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 19th century cabochon emerald and diamond three stone ring by Paul Robin, Paris c.1896, inset to a broad gold band with matte finish, the central high cabochon emerald flanked by old cushion cut diamonds, the gold band slightly tapering to the back, serial number inscribed 1031 within and engraved dedication 'L.S. - G.G. 19 Mai 1896', Robin workshop mark and assaymark to back of shank, the emerald approximately 1.75ct, the diamonds totalling approximately 0.70cts Width of range top to back 8.6mm - 6.1mm

Cabochon emerald approximately 6.6 x 5.6 x 6.6mm deep Weight: 14g