

S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco diamond, drop pearl and black enamel pendant earrings by Cartier, Paris c.1920, formed of stylised crane bird motifs,

of navette outline with radiating fanning diamond lines forming feathers, emanating from the central crane's head in profile, with black enamel detail to beak, head, neck and upper feather tips, a drop pearl hung to each from graduated bell shaped surmounts, all below single stone diamond collet tops, in enamel line borders, mounted in platinum, the diamonds of old European and single cut, approximately 2.50cts in all, both signed top collet tops 'CARTIER', serial number indistinct possibly 0301, French assaymarks to pegs for platinum, workshop mark for Henri Drogue to one of the platinum backs

Length 4.8cm / 1 7/8"

Width 1.2cm / 1/2"

Weight: 12.5g