

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century diamond lacework lozenge brooch, French c.1910,

the delicate platinum mesh millegrain set with rose, old brilliant and single cut diamonds forming a geometric floral spray design, the scalloped edged border and scrollwork frame all set with rose cut diamonds, mounted in platinum, French assaymark to gallery (eagle's head being pre-1912 mark used for platinum), the brooch fitting a later replacement

Length 5.4cm / 2 1/8"

Width 3.5cm / 1 3/8"

Weight: 10.5g