S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century diamond, black enamel and gold heart shaped locket pendant, French c.1850, the front featuring the principal old cut diamond of shield outline, bordered by rose cut diamonds in individual collets giving a scalloped edge, upon a black enamel ground, rose diamond line edge, simliar to suspension bail, the back set with a rose cut white paste, foliate scroll engraved bands to the gold moujts, opening upon a side hinge, the interior with glazed compartment, the gold 18ct, French assaymarks, partial workshop mark _R

Length including bail 3cm / 1 3/16"

Width 2cm / ?"
Weight: 10g