S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 19th / early 20th century aquamarine and diamond pendant-brooch, St Petersburg 1899-1908, the principal facetted rectangular cushion cut aquamarine within an oval frame set with old cut diamonds, rose cut diamond border and scroll gallery, mounted in gold, the bail in gold with platinum top, later dedication engraving '9 Mars 1927', with interchangeable pendant and brooch fittings, possibly later, each struck with workmaster mark N CH in Cyrillic, 56 standard, approximately 6.10cts of diamonds

Length including bail 5.6cm / 2"

Width 3.1cm / 1"
Weight: 24.7g gross