

S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of 19th century turquoise and diamond target cluster earrings, c.1850, of low dome form,

Circa: Circa 1850

each centred by a cushion cut diamond within a three-row cluster of tapered calibre cut turquoise and rose cut diamonds, close collet set, testing as 14ct gold with later 9ct gold fittings

Diameter 1.5cm / 5/8"

Weight: 12.5g