

S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century gold Etruscan revival collar necklace, French c.1870, with bead and wirework decoration, formed of twelve slightly curved bars joined by circular panels with flowerhead motif, the bars dotted with two rows of beading, all with ropetwist edges, French workshop mark JL (the J visible to the partial mark on the clasp ring, the L more visible on the mark to the gallery), French mark for 18ct gold, together with a fitted case Length 37cm / 14½"

Width of bars 0.5cm / 3/16"
Weight: 22.5g