

S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of late 19th century white enamel, diamond and gold daisy earrings, c.1895, the white petals shading to light green at the middle, the domed gold stamen inset with an old cushion cut diamond and with stipple finish ground, the gold testing as 18ct Length including fitting 2.1cm / 7/8"

(Diameter of flowerhead 1.7cm / 11/16")
Weight: 5g