

S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of 19th century cushion diamond cluster earrings, French c.1890, set landscape with a principal cushion cut diamond of approximately 1.15ct each, within a stepped border of diamonds, alternating small old single cuts with rose cuts in pinch-collet settings, mounted in silver coronet gallery with gold back and hinged-back fittings, French assaymarks for 18ct gold, together with a case, total diamond weight including the main stones of approximately

2.80cts

Clusters 1.1 x 1.0cm / 7/16 x 3/8"

Principal diamonds 6.3 x 5.7 x 4.2mm & 6.5 x 6.3 x 4.3mm

Weight: 3.5g