

S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of early 20th century circular diamond panel earrings, c.1915, the round clusters with principal old European brilliant cut to centre, to a pave ground of smaller similar old cuts, below articulated diamond collet lines, all millegrain edged, mounted in platinum and gold testing as 18ct, the pegs later added, total diamond weight approximately 5.90cts (including the principal diamonds of around 1.00ct each)

Length 4cm / 1 1/8"

Diameter of circle panels 1.3cm / $\frac{1}{2}$ "

Weight: 6.5g