

S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 19th / early 20th century ruby and diamond pansy cluster ring, Austro-Hungarian c.1900, the simple cinquefoil cluster with three cushion cut diamonds and two cushion cut rubies forming the petals, smaller cushion diamond to centre, claw coronet set, three rose cut diamonds to each shoulder, mounted in 18ct gold, Austro-Hungarian assaymark and maker's mark FK possibly for Franz Keiler, approximately 0.65cts of rubies, approximately 0.90cts of diamonds
Pansy cluster 12 x 11mm
Weight: 4g