

Late Art Deco diamond scroll cluster double clip brooch by Boucheron, Paris, the fan shaped cluster designed as a stylised palmette, formed of curving C scroll lines channel set with baguette diamonds and terminating each in a round brilliant cut diamonds forming a fan, each half overlaid with line of smaller round diamonds forming a ribbon tie, mounted in platinum with 18ct white gold fittings, signed 'BOUCHERON PARIS', serial number inscribed as '13.026' given in the report below as 13026, French assaymarks and AJV workshop mark for Atelier Joaillerie Vendôme, accompanied by copy of a Certificate of Authenticity from Boucheron no. DP 021-2025-CEGID JAS 00030 incorporating an image of the original sketch, the sketch giving the total carat weight of 9.42cts

Length 4.2cm / 1 5/8"

Width 4.1cm / 1 5/8"

Weight: 30g