S.J. PHILLIPS

Art Deco diamond and onyx bow bar brooch by Cartier, Paris c.1920,

designed as a slimline looped three row ribbon, the central row of calibre cut onyx flanked by old brilliant and double eight cut diamonds, the under-loop revealing calibe onyx, to the middle the rectangular panel 'tie' formed of an onyx baton with short line of diamonds either side, millegrain and channel set in platinum, signed 'CARTIER', French assaymarks and workshop for Henri Picq, approximately 2.45cts of diamonds

Length 5.5cm / 2 3/16"

Width 0.9cm / 3/8" Weight: 11g