S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century rock crystal, diamond, gem and enamel bracelet, probably by Cartier, Paris 1904, made by Georges Andrey, formed of six elongated hexagonal rock crystal panels, each applied with a sapphire and diamond florette, the single and rose cut accent stones in fine millegrain and wire collet settings, the panels joined by slender batons in green guilloche enamel and with a pearl between, bolt ring clasp, mounted in platinum and gold, serial number 1134, workshop mark for Georges Andrey, French assaymarks and stamped 'MD' for diverse metals indicating platinum and gold pre-1913 (when the platinum assaymark was introduced), accompanied by a copy of an Olivier Bachet Expert report no.OB2202-9 declaring that this is in his opinion a genuine item of Cartier, from Cartier Paris 1904

Length 21cm / 8"

Width 1.3cm / "
Weight: 15g