

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century cabochon ruby and diamond entwined double-heart brooch, c.1915, with circle apertures through which they are linked, the hearts pave set with old brilliant and double-eight cut diamonds, dotted with round cabochon rubies, mounted in platinum and reeded gold collets to the rubies, gold scroll-pierced gallery and pin, the gold testing as 18ct, approximately 3.50cts of diamonds in all
Length 3.8cm / 1 1/2"
Height 2cm / 3/4"
Weight: 11g