S.J. PHILLIPS

18th century cushion cut diamond cluster panel, c.1780, with a scalloped edge, currently as feature panel to a late 20th century single row cultured pearl necklace, the cluster featuring a larger old mine cushion cut diamond to centre to a three row border, the rows graduating from small to larger and smallest to the outside, close cut down collet set in silver, the late 20th century cultured pearls of approximately 9-9.5mm and opening on a late 20th century 9ct gold and cultured pearl cluster clasp Cluster diameter 2.4cm / 15/16"

Cultured pearl necklace 46cm / 18"
Weight: 62.5g gross