

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century ruby and diamond cluster ring, c.1910, the oval cut Burma ruby of approximately 1.50ct, collet set within a two row diamond cluster border, pierced and millegrain set with old single and double-eight cut diamonds, a line of four small single cut graduated diamonds to each shoulder, in millegrain collets, to bifurcated split wire shoulders, mounted in platinum, the diamonds approximately 0.45cts in all, together with SSEF report no. 118678 giving the ruby a Burma origin opinion, red of medium strong saturation and that it shows no evidence of heat treatment

Cluster 16 x 14mm

Per SSEF report ruby approximately 9.30 x 7.70 x 2.65mm

Weight: 4.5g