

S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of Art Deco diamond, onyx and emerald cufflinks, c.1925, possibly French, circular panels with a geometric design, featuring a linear ground alternating calibre onyx and rose cut diamonds, incorporating across the middle a three line S scroll of calibre cut emeralds flanked by rose cut diamonds, all millegrain set, the mounts testing as platinum and 18ct white gold, upon French 18ct gold bar-and-loop hinged connectors, the central panel hinging one way, the connectors marked with French gold assaymark, workshop mark and engraved 'BREVETE' 'SGDG' indicating registered patent

Diameter 1.4cm / 9/16"

Weight: 12g