S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 18th / early 19th century diamond and coloured gem harlequin cluster ring, c.1800, formed as a cross of five cushion cut diamonds spaced by cushion cut sapphire, emerald and a yellowy gem possibly topaz and pink stone possibly pink sapphire or spinel, close cut down collet set in individual collets, bifurcated foliate-engraved scroll shoulders, triple line below to a double reeded shank, mounted in silver and gold

Cluster 1.2 x 1.2 cm / 7/16 x 7/16"

Weight: 3g