

S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 16th / early 17th century table cut diamond, gold and enamel ring, c.1600, the box bezel set with a single diamond of rectangular outline, the square bevelled collet with slightly raised corner lines, cusped to the tapering lower half, black enamel and gold foliate detail below forming a shield shape to either side, the shoulders with similar black enamel and gold foliate decoration to half hoop

Bezel 6.2 x 6.1mm, depth overall 7.2mm

Table cut diamond visible 3.4 x 2.9mm

Weight: 4.5g