S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century diamond and platinum chain necklace, c.1915, spaced by three-stone diamond stylised foliate motifs, each with a circular collet supporting to two leaf shapes to one side, millegrain set with old brilliant cut diamonds, upon a chain of wirework baton links with spiral rod detail, featuring two bolt ring options for wear full length or as two separate chains, approximately 4cts of diamonds in all Length full 80cm / 31"

(Separated 40cm 15" each)
Weight: 13.5g