

S.J. PHILLIPS

Early 20th century emerald and diamond lozenge cluster pendant, c.1910, the principal rectangular Colombian emerald of 2.92ct, raised in a line border of old single cut diamonds, to a lozenge shaped outer cluster, the ground set with fancy calibre cut emeralds giving a petal and scalloped frame, outer border of old double-eight and single cut diamonds, open cut down collet set in platinum, hung landscape on a later 18ct white gold tracelink chain necklace, approximately 1.05cts of diamonds in all, accompanied for the main emerald by SSEF report no. 151790 giving a 2.929ct weight, Colombian origin opinion and that is shows minor oil treatment,

Length 2.7cm / 1 1/8"

Width 2.5cm / 1"

Principal emerald 8.93 x 7.72 x 5.55mm

Weight: 10g