S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century gold bead and wirework graduated ball necklace and earrings en suite, c.1870,

the gold balls all decorated with bands of looped C-scroll ropetwist wirework and beaded circlets, the necklace with twenty graduating balls spaced by smaller triple band coilwork links, the pendant earrings formed of two graduated balls, together with a contemporary fitted case, indiscernible control marks to clasp

Length of necklace 45.5cm / 18"

Balls range 2cm / ?" to 0.9cm / 3/8"

Length of earrings including fittings 4cm / 1?"

Balls 15.5cm / 5/8" and 0.9cm / 3/8"

Weight: 45.5g