S.J. PHILLIPS

18th century foiled light orange topaz triple drop demi-parure of brooch and pair of earrings, Portuguese c.1770, of girandole design, each hung with three pear shaped cluster drops, from an openwork foliate scroll cartouche panel, featuring a principal boat shaped cluster to the middle flanked by two leafy branches mirroring each other, close set in silver, later fitting to brooch, earring fittings possibly a little later Width of pendant brooch 6.3cm / 2"

Height of pendant brooch 6.4cm / 2"

Length of earrings 5cm / 2"

Width of earrings 4cm / 1 5/8"
Weight: 100.5g