S.J. PHILLIPS

19th century diamond set cross pendant, c.1850, of Latin form with slightly flaring arms, each set with two lines old mine cushion cut diamonds, a larger principal diamond to centre, cut down and collet set in silver and gold, the central diamond of approximately 0.75ct, the remainder approximately 3.50cts
Length including bail 5.4cm / 2 1/8"

Width 2.8cm / 1 1/8"
Weight: 6.5g