

S.J. PHILLIPS

Late 19th / early 20th century graduated three stone square cushion cut diamond ring, c.1900, the central diamond of approximately 2.30ct, flanked by similar smaller of approximately 1.10ct each, with six rose cut diamond points around, claw and bracket-claw set in gold to a scroll carved gallery and stylised acanthus leaf shoulders, tapering D-shaped shank, the gold testing as 18ct, (total diamond weight approximately 4.55cts including the rose cuts)

19.8 x 8.2 x 5.2mm deep

Central diamond approximately 7.3 x 6.7 x 5.1mm
Weight: 4.5g