S.J. PHILLIPS

Pair of 19th century diamond drop earrings, c.1890, the swing clusters with rounded flowerhead cluster tops, the pendants with inner drop shaped cluster set with two graduated cushion cut diamonds, hung articulated within an outer cushion cut diamond frame graduating larger to the bottom, below detachable cluster tops with larger cushion diamond to centre, a single diamond collet in between, cut-down collet and coronet claw set in silver and gold, gold testing as 14ct, partial Austrian control mark, total diamond weight approximately 11.50cts

Length 4.7cm / 1 7/8"

Width 1.7cm / 5/8"
Weight: 15.5g